

Women's Breakfast Group Report

The Women's Breakfast Group is eagerly awaiting the end of this viral mayhem!

So far, our meetings have been filled with friends both old and new, and cherished time together. We have discussed great topics and shared great snacks and coffee.

We intend to continue meeting on the second Saturday of each month, but for now, our fun is on hold.

Please join me in looking forward to our next time together.

Lora Barber